About Our Beneficiaries:

New Hope Oklahoma

Dedicated to providing services to children with parents in prison, New Hope offers free community-based programs, weekend retreats, family gatherings, and case management services.

South Tulsa Community House

With a mission to strengthen the Riverwood area families and individuals, this agency leads initiatives to reduce hunger, combat poverty, and provide pathways to empowerment.

Clarehouse

A social-model hospice home in Oklahoma, Clarehouse provides person-centered, end-of-life care in a home setting. The home and staff provide dignity, peace, warmth, and love for dying people in need.

The Boy Scouts and Venture Crews of Troop 153

Founded in Britain in 1909, the Boy Scouts came to America in 1910 and soon the BSA and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew were recognized by Congress and President Teddy Roosevelt. Troop 153 is chartered at Saint John's Church.
