

About Our Beneficiaries:

New Hope Oklahoma

Dedicated to providing services to children with parents in prison, New Hope offers free community-based programs, weekend retreats, family gatherings, and case management services.

South Tulsa Community House

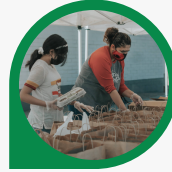

With a mission to strengthen the Riverwood area families and individuals, this agency leads initiatives to reduce hunger, combat poverty, and provide pathways to empowerment.

Emergency Infant Services

Emergency Infant Services, commonly known as EIS, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that offers assistance with basic needs items for children 5 years old and under whose families are facing financial and personal challenges. We respect all who walk through our doors, offering same-day services, regardless of income or residency status. Our top priority is providing accessible, immediate help because a hungry child cannot wait

The Boy Scouts Troop and Venture Crews 153

Founded in Britain in 1909, the Boy Scouts came to America in 1910, and soon the BSA and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew were recognized by Congress and President Teddy Roosevelt. Troop 153 is chartered at Saint John's Church.
