Psalm 114

Chant in F minor, after Tonus Peregrinus

David Willcocks (1919-2015)

- 1 When Israel came out of Egypt, *
and the house of Jacob from among the strange people.
- 2 Judah was his sanctuary *
and Israel his dominion.
- 3 The sea saw that and fled; *
Jordan was driven back.
- 4 The mountains skipped like rams, *
and the little hills like young sheep.
- 5 What aileth thee, O thou sea that thou fleddest? *
and thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back?
- 6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams, *
and ye little hills like young sheep.
- 7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the LORD, *
at the presence of the God of Jacob.

- 8 Who turned the hard rock into a standing water *
and the flint-stone into a springing well.
Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Ghost:
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; *
world without end. Amen.

Psalms 115

Chant in A-flat

Michael Bedford (b.1949)

- 1 Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us,
but unto thy Name give the praise; *
for thy loving mercy, and for thy truth's sake.
- 2 Wherefore shall the heathen say, *
where is now their God?
- 3 As for our God, he is in heaven: *
he hath done whatsoever pleased him.
- 4 Their idols are silver and gold, *
even the work of men's hands.
- 5 They have mouths and speak not; *
eyes have they and see not.
- 6 They have ears, and hear not; *
noses have they and smell not.
- 7 They have hands, and handle not;
feet have they, and walk not; *
neither speak they through their throat.
- 8 They that make them are like unto them; *
and so are all such as put their trust in them.
- 9 But thou, house of Israel, trust thou in the LORD; *
he is their helper and defender.
- 10 Ye house of Aaron, put your trust in the LORD; *
he is their helper and defender.
- 11 Ye that fear the LORD, put your trust in the LORD; *
he is their helper and defender.
- 12 The LORD hath been mindful of us, and he shall bless us; *
even he shall bless the house of Israel,
he shall bless the house of Aaron.
- 13 He shall bless them that fear the LORD, *
both small and great.
- 14 The LORD shall increase you more and more, *
you and your children.

- 15 Ye that are blessed of the LORD, *
who made heaven and earth.
- 16 All the whole heavens are the LORD's, *
the earth hath he given to the children of men.
- 17 The dead praise not thee, O LORD, *
neither all they that go down into silence.
- 18 But we will praise the LORD, *
from this time forth for ever more. Praise the LORD.
- Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, *
and to the Holy Ghost:
- As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be; *
world without end. Amen.

The First Lesson

1 Peter 4:7-11

Reader A lesson from the first letter of Peter.

The end of all things is at hand; therefore keep sane and sober for your prayers. Above all hold unfailing your love for one another, since love covers a multitude of sins. Practice hospitality ungrudgingly to one another. As each has received a gift, employ it for one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: whoever speaks, as one who utters oracles of God; whoever renders service, as one who renders it by the strength which God supplies; in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Reader Here endeth the lesson.

The congregation remains seated during the canticles.

Magnificat

Canticles in G

Herbert Sumsion (1899-1995)

My soul doth magnify the Lord. And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden: For behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and holy is his Name. And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations. He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away. He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel: as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. Luke 1:46-55

The Second Lesson

John 21:15-25

Reader

A lesson from the Gospel according to John.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?" Peter was grieved because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were young, you girded yourself and walked where you would; but when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will gird you and carry you where you do not wish to go." (This he said to show by what death he was to glorify God.) And after this he said to him, "Follow me." Peter turned and saw following them the disciple whom Jesus loved, who had lain close to his breast at the supper and had said, "Lord, who is it that is going to betray you?" When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, "Lord, what about this man?" Jesus said to him, "If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? Follow me!" The saying spread abroad among the brethren that this disciple was not to die; yet Jesus did not say to him that he was not to die, but, "If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you?" This is the disciple who is bearing witness to these things, and who has written these things; and we know that his testimony is true. But there are also many other things which Jesus did; were every one of them to be written, I suppose that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written.

Here endeth the lesson.

Nunc dimittis

Canticles in G

Herbert Sumsion

Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace according to thy word. For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people; to be a light to lighten the Gentiles and to be the glory of thy people Israel. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen. Luke 2:29-32

The Apostles' Creed

Sung by all, monotone

I believe in God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth;
And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord;
who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, dead, and buried.
He descended into hell.
The third day he rose again from the dead.
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father almighty.
From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The General Thanksgiving

Officiant and People

Almighty God, Father of all mercies,
we thine unworthy servants
do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men.

We bless thee for our creation, preservation,
and all the blessings of this life;
but above all for thine inestimable love
in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ;
for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.
And, we beseech thee,
give us that due sense of all thy mercies,
that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful;
and that we show forth thy praise,
not only with our lips, but in our lives,
by giving up our selves to thy service,
and by walking before thee
in holiness and righteousness all our days;
through Jesus Christ our Lord,
to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost,
be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

The Officiant prays

Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplication unto thee; and hast promised through thy well-beloved Son that when two or three are gathered together in his Name thou wilt be in the midst of them: Fulfill now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants as may be best for us; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

The musical notation is written on two staves in G major (one sharp) and 4/4 time. The first staff is for the Cantor or Officiant, and the second is for the People. Both parts begin with a whole rest for the first measure. The lyrics are: 'Let us bless the Lord, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.' for the Cantor and 'Thanks be to God, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.' for the People. The melody consists of quarter and eighth notes, with a final cadence in the second measure of each line.

Cantor or Officiant

Let us bless the Lord, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.

People

Thanks be to God, al-le-lu-ia, al-le-lu-ia.

The Officiant says

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen.
